Cars go fast, bikes go slow, Red light stops, green says go. Look both ways before you cross, Safety first—no rush, no loss.	Ben sits in a small boat. The water moves slowly. “Row, row!” says dad. They see fish and birds. Ben laughs, “I like boats!”	Up in the sky, the airplane flies, Over the clouds, so high, so high. Wings go wide, engines roar, Flying, flying—explore more!	Short story: Tom Crosses the Street Tom walks with his mom. They stop at the red light. They wait… and wait. Green light! They look left, look right, Then cross the street safely. Mom smiles, “Good job, Tom!”
